Campus Emergencies Prevention, Response, and Recovery (MGT-324)

This course provides participants with an understanding of and ability to navigate through the difficult aspects of dealing with campus emergencies involving natural or human-caused events, including acts of violence. The course consists of small, problem-based, integrated group activities that require a coordinated, integrated approach to solve. Through tabletop scenarios, course participants will observe a developing incident and respond in a manner consistent with currently established campus and jurisdictional emergency operations procedures.

The target audience for the Direct Delivery version of this course must include representatives from each of the following areas:
- Executive campus leaders
- Faculty/student governance
- Campus public safety departments
- Facilities departments
- Emergency management
- Student life and affairs
- Campus health/medical and mental health services
- Campus public affairs
- Jurisdictional public information officers at community colleges, colleges and universities
- Local law enforcement and public safety agencies
